

PRESENTER

Denham Martin, Barrister, Auckland

Denham is a lawyer specialising in all aspects of tax and trust law and this has included giving advice over the years on the widest range of GST issues and problems. He was involved with the roll-out of GST in Australia as a lead services provider to the Australian Society of CPAs and the Television Education Network and was at the same time a consultant in Australia on GST to Malleson Stephen Jacques, PriceWaterhouseCoopers and other professional firms and organisations. He has authored and presented technical articles on GST-related topics both here and in Australia and has been involved in some of New Zealand's leading GST cases – eg Norfolk Apartments v C of IR, Wairakei Court v C of IR and Mangaheia Trust and Trustees in the Te Mata Trust v C of IR.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
