

PRESENTERS

Robbie Muir, Registrar-General of Land, Land Information NZ, Wellington

Robbie has extensive experience working as a solicitor in the area of land title registration and was appointed to the position of Registrar-General of Land for New Zealand in 2000. He has been heavily involved in the development of New Zealand's Landonline system and related legislative reforms to enable electronic registration. Robbie has been a regular contributor to various property law publications and has presented at several NZLS CLE seminars on conveyancing matters over the years, including a national seminar series on electronic registration.

Duncan Terris, Christchurch

Duncan is the principal of a law firm he founded in 1997 specialising in conveyancing. He has been in practice for more than 20 years, with three of those being in Sydney. Duncan has filled the role of NZLS e-dealing consultant since 2004 and was the NZLS stakeholder representative on the Landonline project. He is member of the Property Law Section's Land Titles Committee and the PLS Executive. Duncan is a presenter at the annual NZLS CLE Residential Property Transactions Workshops, and a regular columnist in the Property Law Section's quarterly publication, The Property Lawyer.

Contributor

Ian Haynes, Partner, Kensington Swan, Auckland

Ian is a consultant with the firm Kensington Swan. He is a past-president of NZLS, a former president of ADLS and a former board member of NZLS. Ian is a former Judicial Conduct Commissioner. He chairs the College of Law New Zealand and the Spencer Mason Trust. He has been a member of the Property Law Section's Executive Committee for many years. Throughout his legal career Ian has specialised in property law.

Acknowledgements

Chapter one of this booklet is sourced from a session delivered at the NZLS CLE Ltd, Property Law Conference 2012 – Property Law Section Protocols – the everyday life of a property lawyer, and a paper written by Ian Haynes. Duncan Terris is grateful for the assistance provided by the Property Law Section's Property Transactions Committee and Payments NZ in preparing Chapter two of this booklet.

*The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such.
