DISCLOSURE – CRIMINAL LAW

One of the fundamental tenets of the rule of criminal law is the right to a fair trial. Knowing the case against your clients through an effective disclosure process constitutes a key foundation for this right. This webinar will be of value whether you are representing the prosecution or defence.

OUTLINE

Matt and Shane will provide an overview of the functionality of the criminal law disclosure process and consider strategies and tools that you can employ when dealing with disclosure-related issues.

Topics covered will include:

- Prosecutorial duty to provide all relevant disclosure on an ongoing basis
- Case management tips and tools to access information held by the prosecution or non-parties
- Lessons learned from recent cases including the consequences for failing to disclose information appropriately.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After this webinar you will be:

- Able to understand the scope of prosecutorial and non-party obligations to provide disclosure.
- Aware of the challenges that can be raised to compel disclosure.
- Informed of the serious consequences which can flow from non-compliance.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

All lawyers interested in criminal procedure and case preparation.

MATERIALS

A background book written by the presenters is available in hard copy, PDF, or both. Please indicate your choice upon registration.

FEE (Incl GST)

$149 NZLS members/associates; $179 non-members.

PRESENTERS

Matt Goodwin, Barrister, Guardian Chambers, Auckland

Matt is a specialist trial advocate and criminal defence lawyer. His criminal litigation experience originated with six years' employment as a Crown Prosecutor in Auckland and London, followed by more than 20 years at the defence bar specialising in jury trial work. Matt has extensive experience in defending clients charged with homicide offences, serious violence, sexual violation, drugs, serious fraud, regulatory offending, and on appeal. He is a member of the New Zealand Bar Association Criminal Committee and previously served on the Executive Committee of the Criminal Bar Association.

Shane Kilian, Principal, Kilian & Associates, Auckland & Tauranga

Shane specialises in civil, commercial and criminal litigation with specific speciality in the areas of taxation, fraud and administrative law. He has acted for clients in a wide range of criminal cases including fraud and dishonesty, violent crimes, drug and sex offending as well as regulatory offending. Having acted in both the role of prosecutor and defence, Shane has the advantage of having dealt with both aspects of the disclosure regime. He has more than 20 years in litigation both in civil and criminal jurisdictions.
