WORKSHOP

TRUST ACCOUNT ADMINISTRATOR

4

CPD hours

One of the important duties of a solicitor practising on their own account is to maintain clear and reliable trust account records, which must be up to date and in compliance with professional duties and trust accounting regulations. The day-to-day duties of trust account recording frequently fall to a skilled and diligent staff member. This course equips attendees with the technical knowledge and self-confidence to administer a trust account effectively and efficiently.

OUTLINE

This practical course includes pre-course work and a half-day workshop/online session.

The course will cover:

Legal obligations; regulatory requirements; recording transactions; processing transactions; reconciling the trust account; file closure; end of month review; issues and common faults.

PRESENTERS

Melanie Ashall, NZLS Inspectorate Manager, Hamilton

Melanie holds an LLB/BMS(hons) and started her career as a tax advisor and auditor at a mid-tier accounting firm. She then moved on to work in the areas of tax evasion and prosecution at Inland Revenue where she stayed for ten years. Melanie joined the Inspectorate in 2015, in the Waikato/BOP Branch office. She is a Chartered Accountant and an enrolled Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court.

Kane Smith, NZLS Inspectorate, Christchurch

Kane has a Bachelor of Management Studies majoring in Finance and Economics and a Graduate Diploma in Accounting. He spent several years as a young entrepreneur and worked at Inland Revenue in the Fraud and Evasion team. Kane started as an Inspector for the New Zealand Law Society in 2016 based in Hamilton. He has since moved to Christchurch and looks after the South Island regions.
