

PRESENTER

Duncan Webb, Lane Neave, Christchurch

Duncan has practised law since 1989. He has also taught in law schools in the United States and New Zealand including a distinguished career as a former Professor of Law. Between 2008 and 2010 Duncan held a quasi-judicial appointment within the Ministry of Justice as Legal Complaints Review Officer. He was closely involved in the preparation of the new Rules of Professional Conduct and Client Care; recently presented on Client Care for the New Zealand Law Society; is the author of Ethics Professional Responsibility and the Lawyer, and regularly speaks to professional groups on issues of ethics and professional conduct.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
