

PRESENTERS

Blake Dawson, Legal Adviser, Police Prosecution Service, Wellington

Blake is the in-house counsel for the Police Prosecution Service and was previously a Police prosecutor in Wellington and a defence lawyer in Christchurch. He advises and represents the Police on a wide variety of prosecution related matters and provides direct assistance in complex prosecutions. Blake is the general editor of the Police Prosecution Service Court Manual (and author of the content on discharge without conviction), author of the LexisNexis Practical Guidance – Criminal material Mentally Impaired Persons, Diversion, Summary Offences, and Victims’ Orders Against Violent Offenders and is a contributor to Garrow & Turkington’s Criminal Law.

Mark Wilton, Principal Prosecutor, Police Prosecution Service, Wellington

Mark was appointed to Principal Prosecutor in the Police Prosecution Service in 2012. He is a litigation lawyer with a criminal law speciality who was previously in private practice in the Wairarapa and Wellington as a criminal defence lawyer and youth advocate before he joined the Police Prosecution Service. In addition to his prosecutor roles, Mark regularly teaches advocacy courses at the Royal New Zealand Police College and has been deployed to the Pacific to teach on Prosecutor training programmes including a secondment to assist the prosecution office of the Attorney General in Samoa. Mark is a Vice President and Board member of the New Zealand Law Society. He also serves on the NZLS Courthouse Committee.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.

Cover and text stocks used in this publication are from Forestry Stewardship Council certified mills, manufactured under the environmentally responsible paper manufactured environmental management system ISO 14001, using pulp from well managed forests and other controlled sources.

CONTENTS

1. INTRODUCTION.....	1
What is a discharge without conviction?.....	1
The legislation.....	1
When must a discharge be considered?	2
2. GENERAL APPLICATION	3
Who may receive a discharge without conviction?	3
Procedure – application required	3
Contents of an application	4
Contents of a response	4
Opposing a discharge – considerations for the prosecution.....	5
No discharge without conviction where the court is required to impose a minimum sentence	5
Mandatory disqualification is not a minimum sentence	5
Previous convictions are no bar to a discharge without conviction.....	7
A previous discharge does not preclude a subsequent discharge	7
3. THE TEST	9
At what step are the purposes and principles of sentencing, and aggravating and mitigating factors, considered?	10
Step One – gravity.....	11
Step Two – consequences	12
Common Consequences.....	13
Step Three – proportionality	19
Step Four – the residual nature of s 106.....	20
4. ORDERS AVAILABLE IF DISCHARGE WITHOUT CONVICTION GRANTED	25
No power to impose sentence	25
Reparation.....	25
Disqualification.....	25