

Relationship Property – business valuations and the expert witness

1. THE PROPERTY (RELATIONSHIPS) ACT	1
Fact situation – when Mary met Peter	1
Property (Relationships) legislation – the main changes	3
Extension to de facto	3
Abolition of distinction between domestic and balance property	3
Orders for redressing economic disparities	3
Strengthening provisions relating to trusts and companies	4
Increases in value of separate property	4
Post separation contributions	5
Superannuation and life insurance	5
Debts	6
Deferment of sharing	6
Sole originating jurisdiction is the Family Court	6
Contracting out	6
Rights after death	6
Spousal maintenance	7
Peter and Mary and the Property (Relationships) Act	7
2. BASIC CONCEPTS OF VALUATION	8
The expert's viewpoint	8
What is "value"?	10
More recent approaches to discounted cash flow valuation	12
3. IDENTIFYING PROBLEMS AND APPLYING THE THEORY	14
Fair value v fair market value	14
Choice of valuation methodology	14
Assessing future performance for valuation purposes	15
NOPAT, EBIT and EBITDA	15
Discount rates and multipliers	16
CAPM and WACC applications	16
Asset valuations and adjustments	16
Discounts and premiums for special parcels	17
Goodwill and the "bundle of rights"	17
Valuation of interests in professional practices	18
Intellectual property and "e-valuations"	20
Matrimonial property cases as precedent	20
4. POSSIBLE APPROACHES UNDER THE NEW ACT	21
Peter and Mary and s 15	21
The key issues for Mary under s 15	22
Compensation	22

How could the court approach a property calculation of a compensation order to Mary under s 15?	23
Section 10	24
The new sections 44A to 44C	26
Date at which relationship property transferred to trust is to be valued	27
What about reduction in indebtedness over property transferred into trust?	27
What about the fact that Mary remains a discretionary beneficiary? (s 44C(4)(e))	28
How would the court decide what is a fair compensation order under s 44C?	28
Further issues arising in regard to s 44	29
Does s 44 apply to dispositions of relationship property prior to February 2002?	29
5. HOW TO GET THE BEST VALUE FROM YOUR EXPERT – THE EXPERT’S VIEWPOINT	30
The primary evidence	30
Assistance with cross-examination	33
6. HOW TO GET THE BEST VALUE FROM YOUR EXPERT – COUNSEL’S VIEWPOINT	35
Evidence in chief – working with your own witness	35
Selecting a valuer	35
Drafting of the expert valuer’s affidavit	36
Valuer’s report	36
The structure of an expert’s report for valuation purposes in domestic property	36
Preparing your expert for oral testimony	37
Cross-examination	38
Introduction	38
Principles of effective cross-examination	38
Tried and tested cross-examination tactics	40
Common flaws in valuation reports in matrimonial property proceedings	40
The reliability of data use in valuation	40
Did the valuer understand the business entities they were valuing?	40
Does the valuer have knowledge of the following key areas?	41
Look at the methodology chosen by the expert	41
General	41
APPENDIX 1	43
APPENDIX 2	47
APPENDIX 3	51