

CHAIR

Andrew Logan, MDS Law, Christchurch

Andrew has been practising property and commercial law for 26 years in a number of firms in Auckland, London and Christchurch. While his practice is varied, it maintains a strong property focus. Andrew is the Chair of the Property Law Section as well as a past director of NZLS CLE Limited.

SPEAKERS

Tim Barclay, Anthony Harper, Christchurch

Tim advises clients on a wide range of commercial property matters, including acquisitions and disposals, development and subdivision activities, leasing and property finance. Tim's clients include large corporates, developers, investors, landlords and banks. Tim has expertise in regulatory compliance matters which are relevant to property transactions, in particular under the Overseas Investment Act and Securities Act.

Stephen van Bohemem, Barrister, Christchurch

Stephen is a barrister, practising in Christchurch. He is a member of Atticus Chambers. His practice is predominantly Family Law and his current caseload is approximately 60% relationship property and 40% child law. Stephen has presented seminars both locally and internationally on a variety of family law topics. He is a contributing editor to Brookers Family Law – Family Procedure and Family Property.

Kathryn Dalziel, Taylor Shaw, Christchurch

Kathryn is a partner at Taylor Shaw in Christchurch specialising in employment and privacy law as well as civil litigation and professional ethics. In her 25 year career, she has also worked as a senior Crown prosecutor as well as a lecturer in employment law, privacy and legal ethics at the University of Canterbury. Kathryn regularly presents seminars on behalf of the Office of the Privacy Commissioner, is the author of "Privacy in Schools" and co-authored the chapter on Health Information in "Health Care and the Law (4th ed)".

Allister Davis, Clark Boyce, Christchurch

Allister began practising the law in 1986 and became a Partner of Clark Boyce in 1993. He specialises in criminal defence work, traffic prosecutions, civil litigation, employment law for both Employers and employees, arbitrations, disputes resolution and coroners' proceedings. He has completed a LEADR mediation workshop and is available to lead mediations. Allister is a past President of the Canterbury/Westland Branch of the NZ Law Society and is currently the Vice – President of the NZ Law Society (South Island).

SPEAKERS

Peter Eastgate, Cavell Leitch, Christchurch

Peter is the Trust Partner at Cavell Leitch, supervising one of the largest trust practices in the South Island. With over 35 years experience, he is a specialist in the areas of wills, estate and succession law, elder law, the law of attorneyship, asset protection and all aspects of trust law (including charitable trusts), and he acts as a trustee for many of his clients. A graduate of Canterbury University (Law) and the University of New England (Trust Management), he is a member of STEP, a Fellow of the Executor and Trustee Institute, and a senior member of the NZ Trustees Association. A strong advocate of ongoing education within the legal and trust professions, he has since 2007 been the NZ Legal Consultant at UWS College at the University of Western Sydney, supervising a trust and estate law teaching programme for NZ based students for the Executor and Trustee Institute.

Hamish Evans, Young Hunter, Christchurch

Hamish is a Partner at Young Hunter, Christchurch, a firm that specialises in insurance litigation. He has been in practice for almost 25 years. Hamish completed a Masters in Law with Honours at Canterbury University in 1997, with his dissertation on insurance law principles. He specialises in insurance, ACC, employment and commercial litigation. He provides advice to insurers and insureds, and has a number of cases in the Christchurch High Court earthquake list. Hamish is an updating author for the ACC text, Personal Injury in New Zealand. He is the Convenor of the Litigation Committee of the Canterbury branch of the New Zealand Law Society and is a guest instructor at the New Zealand Law Society Litigation Skills programme.

Lindsay Lloyd, MDS Law, Christchurch

Lindsay is a partner in the MDS Law in Christchurch. He was the inaugural Chairman of the NZLS Property Law Section and on the Executive until 2013. Lindsay has also been a member of the NZLS Ethics Committee for eleven years and has presented CLE Seminars on ethics, on Property and Insurance matters in 2012, and also at subsequent seminars on those topics. He is a presenter for the NZLS Trust Accountant Supervisor Course.

Matt Maling, Lane Neave, Christchurch

Matt is a specialist construction lawyer. He provides advice as to procurement, project delivery methods, completion of the tender process, risk analysis, drafting construction contracts and related agreements, contract negotiations, contract administration and dispute resolution. Recent work undertaken includes assistance with projects for Wellington International Airport, University of Canterbury, Canterbury Earthquake Recovery Authority, Ngai Tahu Property, Ministry of Justice and a number of significant private developments throughout New Zealand. Matt was admitted to practice in New Zealand in 1998 and New South Wales in 2007.

SPEAKERS

Storm McVay, Crombie Lockwood, Christchurch

Storm has highly experience in advising professional and corporate clients on all aspects of property and liability risk and insurance. She has also been extensively engaged in earthquake claims management, advocacy and settlement on behalf of a wide range of corporate and private Christchurch property owners.

Her Hon Judge Jackie Moran, Ministry of Justice - Family Court, Christchurch

Judge Jackie Moran was appointed to the Family and District Courts in September 2003 and sits in Christchurch. She graduated from Auckland University in 1980 and moved to Wanganui where she was a partner in Armstrong Barton and practised in the fields of criminal and family law. In 1990 she moved to Invercargill where she specialised in family law until the time of her appointment to the Bench. Judge Moran was the Administrative Family Court Judge for the Southern Region from 2008 until 2014.

Catherine Muir, Malley & Co Lawyers, Christchurch

As well as providing commercial, business and property advice, Catherine specialises in all aspects of trust formation, administration and management, trust re-settlements and variations, and asset structuring. Because she has considerable general commercial and business law experience, her work is often at the interface between trust, commercial and relationship property law. Catherine also advises a number of charities and not-for-profit organisations and has advised on reviews of governing documentation, establishing, restructuring, and winding up of charitable trusts. Catherine is a member of STEP.

Craig Ruane, Barrister, Christchurch

Craig was a litigation partner in a Christchurch firm, a senior prosecutor with the Crown Solicitors Office in Christchurch and now practises as a barrister. A faculty member of the Litigation Skills programme since the early 90's, Craig was the Director of the 2008 Lincoln programme and of the 2010 and 2013 programmes held in Wellington. He has presented various NZLS seminars and criminal advocacy seminars and workshops.

SPEAKERS

Andrew Shaw, Lane Neave, Christchurch

Andrew is a specialist employment and health & safety lawyer, with over 23 years experience working for employers throughout New Zealand. Andrew acts for a number of Government entities, national member-based organisations and multi-national public and private companies. Andrew provides advice at Board and Senior Management level and works closely with in-house HR and health & safety teams. Andrew is a member of the New Zealand Law Society's Employment Law Committee. Andrew works for employers on all aspects of employment law, from pre-employment to post-termination restraints, and everything in between. In the health & safety area, Andrew was involved in the first defended case in New Zealand under the current Act and he is a leading presenter on the new Health & Safety Law Reform Bill. He has also been involved in presenting submissions on changes to New Zealand's employment and health & safety law to select committees.

Jason Wren, Barrister, Christchurch

Jason has practised exclusively in the area of Family Law for over 20 years. His areas of expertise relate to relationship property and care of children disputes. Jason is a Court Approved Lawyer for the child and has presented regularly in on-going legal education matters.

CONTENTS

In session order

A Practical Guide to Earthquake Claims

A Practical Guide to Earthquake Claims 1

Hamish Evans and Storm McVay

Property Law Update

Property Law 25

Lindsay Lloyd

The Anticipated Greatest Hits of 2015 for Family Law

Stephen van Bohemen, Her Hon Judge Jackie Moran and Jason Wren

Relationship Property Law – what happened in 2014? 35

Stephen van Bohemen

Current Family Law Processes Relating to Care of Children Act Disputes 51

Jason Wren

Employment Law Update

Employment Law Update 59

Katheryn Dalziel

Health and Safety Reform Bill – changing the culture

Health and Safety Reform 71

Andrew Shaw

Commercial Developments – leasing and construction issues

Commercial Developments – leasing and construction issues 87

Tim Barclay and Matt Maling

Criminal Law Update

Sentencing 113

Allister Davis

Scenario Interviews and the use of Undercover Police Officers 119

Craig Ruane

Wills, Estates and Trust Law

The Professional Trustee – getting it right 129

Catherine Muir

Wills, Estates and Trust Law 151

Peter Eastgate

CONTENTS

Alphabetical by author/presenter

Author		Title	Page
Barclay	Tim	Commercial Developments – leasing and construction issues Joint paper with Matt Maling	87
van Bohemen	Stephen	The Anticipated Greatest Hits of 2015 for Family Law	35
Dalziel	Kathryn	Employment Law Update	59
Davis	Allister	Criminal Law Update	113
Eastgate	Peter	Wills, Estates and Trust Law	151
Evans	Hamish	A Practical Guide to Earthquake Claims Joint paper with Storm McVay	1
Lloyd	Lindsay	Property Law	25
Maling	Matt	Commercial Developments – leasing and construction issues Joint paper with Tim Barclay	87
McVay	Storm	A Practical Guide to Earthquake Claims Joint paper with Hamish Evans	1
Moran	Her Hon Judge Jackie	The Anticipated Greatest Hits of 2015 for Family Law Presenter only	35 51
Muir	Catherine	Wills, Estates and Trust Law	129
Ruane	Craig	Criminal Law Update	119

Shaw	Andrew	Health and Safety Reform Bill – changing the culture	71
Wren	Jason	The Anticipated Greatest Hits of 2015 for Family Law	51