

PRESENTERS

Don McMorland, Barrister, Auckland

Don McMorland taught land law and “vendor and purchaser” at Auckland University Law School between 1967 and 1998. He is the co-author of Hinde McMorland and Sim on Land Law in NZ, and is the author of Sale of Land, now in its third edition, with the fourth in preparation. In addition Don has been the editor of Butterworths Conveyancing Bulletin since its inception in 1982, writing many of the case notes on sale of land issues, and is the general editor of the New Zealand Conveyancing and Property Reports.

Julian Smith, Greenwood Roche, Wellington

Julian specialises in commercial property and infrastructure development and has particular expertise in the acquisition and disposal of land by the developers of major projects. He dealt with the purchase and later sale of all residential and rural properties required for Transpower’s major new transmission line into Auckland.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
