

PRESENTERS

Phillip Merfield, Partner, Simpson Grierson, Auckland

Phillip has over 38 years' of legal experience in commercial property, the last 25 being heavily involved in dealing with Public Works Act land issues. He has delivered papers on property insurance, subdivisions, unit titles, the Public Works Act and the Property Law Act 2007. He is a contributing author to Brookers Building Law and Brookers Land Law. He is the author of the "Unit Titles" chapter in the Auckland District Law Society Legal Practice Manual. He is at present the editor of the Valuers Institute Valuation Casebook. Phillip is a convener of the Public Sector and Resource Management Technical Committee of the Property Law Section and is a director of the Property Institute of New Zealand.

Julian Smith, Principal, Greenwood Roche Chisnall, Wellington

Julian specialises in commercial property and infrastructure law and has particular expertise in the acquisition of land for major projects and issues around the disposal of land for Crown agencies and electricity lines companies. Julian has recently been involved in the acquisition of property rights for a number of upgrades to the national grid, including the new transmission line into Auckland, and the disposal of properties subject to section 40 of the Public Works Act.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
