

PRESENTER

Denham Martin, Barrister, Auckland

Denham is a barrister specialising in advising on all aspects of tax law. Formerly a tax and commercial law partner with Chapman Tripp, and principal of his own specialist law practice, Denham has had over 20 years helping clients with legal problems in New Zealand and Australia. He is a very experienced seminar presenter and has published extensively on technical tax, trust and commercial law issues both here and overseas.

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course. It is not intended to be a comprehensive statement of the law or practice, and should not be relied upon as such. If advice on the law is required, it should be sought on a formal, professional basis.
