

PRESENTERS

Bruce Bernacchi, Minter Elliston Rudd Watts, Auckland

Bruce has substantial experience in advising clients on a wide range of corporate taxation matters. He specialises in cross-border taxation issues, and has a particular interest in trans-Tasman taxation. Bruce regularly advises clients on the taxation implications of business structuring alternatives, mergers and acquisitions, and on business and capital restructures. He has advised some of New Zealand's leading companies and has particular experience in the finance, property and IT sectors. He also advises his clients on complex GST issues.

Casey Plunket, Chapman Tripp, Auckland

Casey has extensive experience in corporate acquisitions, mergers and restructurings, both on-shore and cross-border. He has advised US investors in particular on structuring their New Zealand direct investment. Casey has also advised New Zealand and foreign institutions in cross-border structured finance transactions. Particular sectors he has been involved in include electricity, forestry and telecommunications.

Casey is a regular public speaker at tax conferences, and teaches part-time at Auckland University.
